Description

Simatec is an Italian company that manufactures equipment for beer production • We have more than ten years of experience collaborating with some of the best master brewers and so gaining comprehensive know-how in all areas. • This precious experience is made completely available to the client! • Let it be known also that since 2004, SIMATEC has been a craft beer producer. • Its brewery SorA'laMA' produces 4000hl annually, using top and bottom fermentation, bottle and tank conditioned, marketing in Italy and abroad. • This relationship inspired the slogan "BREWERIES BY THOSE WHO KNOW HOW TO MAKE BEER!". • The SIMATEC brew kettles, thanks to innovative patented technology, have been favoured by both learner brewers and some of the best multiple awarded Italian producers! Some important features are: • Compact and easy to use; • Modular and automated; • Rapid filtering with definite times and high yields. • Very low oxidation while the product is hot for superior quality; • Rapid cleaning with minimal chemical use; • Good quality - price ratio.
